

As-salāmu alaykum wa rahmatullāhī wa barakātuh, I pray this email finds you in the best of health and īmān, In Shā' Allāh.

I've compiled some resources to help you support your child with their Qā'idah reading at home. Below you can find links to videos explaining each Qā'idah level, a playlist covering the correct pronunciation of each letter in the Arabic alphabet and tips for fluency. I've also linked games for each of these rules. These resources are meant to supplement the learning you are already doing at home with your child, not replace it. I pray this serves some benefit In Shā' Allāh.
